Philip M. Bailey Lac Remedies in Practice

Describing the lac remedy themes brings an interesting challenge between describing specific symptoms of a remedy and identifying broader "themes" and definitive characteristics of a remedy or grouping of remedies. Bailey, as he did before in his book Homeopathic Pyschology tends towards more general emphatic themes than merely discussing specific symptom pictures. While that helps in creating an image of gestalt of a remedy or grouping, it can tend to lead to an over-generalization in ...
