The standard Sieg X1 micro-mill is great value for money. You do not pay a great deal of money for the micro-mill, and you get a very sturdy tool that can be used for many things. Any Sieg X1 micro-mill owner is going to accept that their purchase isn't going to be the ultimate milling machine...but for the money it does well.

Hi All , I'm looking for advice on a budget small mill. I've looked at Clarke , Arc Euro , Proxxon , and the offerings from Amadeal. The Proxxon MF70 Seems a little small , I can get a ex-demo Clarke CMD10 for about £260.00 inc vat but the table looks a little small on this model. It seems to me that the Sieg Super X1L Mill which has 400mm long table looks the best bet , according to the ...
